2. PRESIDENT'S REPORT

In his report, President Ramage:

- Reported on the sudden and unexpected passing of MHLS Board member, Debra Klein. Rajene Hardman moved, and Stuart Auchincloss seconded a resolution in honor of Debra authored by Mark Wilson. The resolution passed unanimously:

President's report presented

WHEREAS, the Mid-Hudson Library System (MHLS) staff and Board of Trustees mourn the sudden and unexpected passing of Board member Debbie Klein on December 28, 2023; and

Resolution to honor Debra Klein approved

WHEREAS, Debbie served her first five-year term on the MHLS Board from 2016 to 2020, and was in service on the Board during her second five-year term starting in 2021; and

WHEREAS, in 2018 Debbie accepted her appointment as Chair of the Board's Standing Committee on Bylaws, Policies and Procedures; and

WHEREAS, Debbie's excellent leadership and organizational skills contributed to the long-term success of that Committee's work, up to the day of her passing; and

WHEREAS, Debbie agreed to serve as an inaugural member of the Board's EDI Working Group, formed in July 2020; and

WHEREAS, the direction and scope of the Working Group was greatly aided by Debbie's contributions, insights and active involvement in presentations to the full Board; and

WHEREAS, Debbie also served on the Board of the Catskill Public Library from July 2018 to July 2020, working collaboratively with other Board members and library staff; and

WHEREAS, by volunteering her time and talent to additional local cultural attractions and environmental causes, Debbie exemplified extraordinary commitment to her community; and

WHEREAS, Debbie’s calm demeanor, thoughtful responses, professional background, extensive knowledge and care for the human condition was present throughout her life;

Now, therefore, be it resolved that the Board of Trustees of the Mid-Hudson Library System

Recognizes the many invaluable contributions of Debra “Debbie” Wilcox Klein during her seven years of service on the MHLS Board of Trustee;

Remembers Debbie for her grace, kindness and generosity of her time and talent; and

Offers its most sincere condolences to her family, friends, colleagues and neighbors who were an integral part of Debbie’s community.

- Presented the 2024 Board Priorities (Doc. 2.B)
- Presented the 2024 Board Committee Rosters (Doc. 2.C)
- Discussed the importance of state-level advocacy by MHLS Board Members, encouraging everyone to do what they can to help educate legislators about the need for an increase in state aid to the System.
