Subject: Thank you!

Hi Laurie,

I just want to brighten everyone's day at the tech ops team. Thanks for all your hard work to keep everything running smoothly!

I just started playing around with Mobile Worklists to start doing inventory now that I have a phone that can handle it, and I absolutely love it. Decision Center has also been a huge game changer.

I know that there's a lot coming down the line, and I wanted to send a note of thanks.

Happy Holidays,
Angie Antzak
