You are so welcome!

Thank you for your kind words.

Wonderful, thank you

Thank you so much, Rebekkah! This is a wonderful way to start off our week.

We're very much looking forward to and committed to this work, and I could not be more thrilled to have Laura as my mentor.

Thank you for your continued support of our Library and for your tireless effort championing sustainability, one of (if not) the most consequential issues facing our Library and community.

With gratitude,
Alex

Subject: Overdrive Collection

Hello Nina,

I just wanted to send you a note to say how much I enjoyed browsing through the titles you selected for the curated collection on OverDrive. I loved the range of works. Really great job!

Thanks so much for creating this for our patrons!

Best,
Michelle

Hi Rebekkah,

Just a quick message to let you know that we published your final article in the series to WebJunction on Tuesday, January 9: Stronger Together: Collective Impact and Climate Action.

And here are some social links in case you'd like to share them: LinkedIn and Facebook. We'll also promote the article Crossroads, or email newsletter on February 7.

Thank you again on behalf of JP, myself, and WebJunction for all of your work to make this series possible. We've been so grateful and excited to have this series to share with readers and library practitioners, and we're thrilled to launch our new sustainability topic area on WebJunction so we can continue to share it widely and add new content and resources.

All the best,

Amy
