Hi Kathryn,

Thank you so very much for managing the breakout rooms for our meeting today. You did it perfectly and I appreciate help, which allowed everyone to participate.

If we can ever reciprocate in some way, please let us know.

Best,

Hi, Nina!

I just had to write to tell you how thrilled I am that this is up and running! I had an ebook for book group from MHLS set to expire in literally hours, and I wasn't finished. UHLS had it available! It seriously made my day. So easy.

Thanks,
Johanna

Hi Rebekkah,

Thank you for this response. (Was that only 4 days ago-----feels like weeks/) I understand the rationale; if Covid is no longer declared a public health emergency, then what are our policies based upon?

We made sure to update all our signage to reflect that masks are no longer required for general library use, but encouraged during programming when there's not enough space to social distance.

There's certainly never a dull moment in this job, for which I'm grateful. As well as all the wonderful guidance I get from you, MHLS, and member libraries.

See you tomorrow,
Dede

Hi Rebekkah,

Casey has been helping me navigate a very bumpy construction grant process and he has been more than helpful - he cares, he doesn't give up, he does all he can to make it work. His most powerful attribute is that he cares about libraries and wants them to succeed and does all he can to insure that success. I am so grateful he is part of the Mid-Hudson team..

All the best,

Jeanne
